WEEKLY [] OPERATIONAL REPORT
Period 23 through 29 March 1954, incl.

C 7/11:

The debriefings of [] in re the [] conversations, as dictated by [] are an attachment to separate dispatch []. The last meeting was the 13th one and held Tuesday, 23 March 1954. [] then returned to Guatemala and it is presumed he has not returned since he has not as of this date contacted [] who is prepared to attempt to persuade him to delay any assassination attempts as well as to comply with the substance of LINC 1329, LINC 1332, and LINC 1291.

C 7/12:

[] has been submitted in re intelligence which is not particularly pertinent to PBSUCCESS. The [] plan to cutout [] must be held in abeyance pending an operational clearance of [] whose present clearance (See LINC 1234, Para 2) is so limited that no effective use can result therefrom. Advice will be appreciated whether or not the [] should seek for and submit another identity for this task. Of the two Communists, who are believed by [] as prepared to double, one has agreed to submit a report on the Communist situation in Santa Ana while the other is still regarded as wavering. [] has yet to be convinced their turning is bonafide and continues to explore their records and motivation. It will be helpful when a response is received to.

[] progresses in his development of the [] through both [] and [] No intelligence production has yet been forthcoming.

C 7/14:

The [] has been contacted through his wife and upon first available opportunity will proceed to the finca of [] who has pertinent questions on hand to put to him. It is noteworthy that his temporary duty is evidently to reinforce [] to the detriment of the [] and his answer to the questions prepared for [] are anticipated as revealing more of the Guatemalan present [] procedures and assignments.

[] is alerted for the visit of [] and will cooperate fully. He will be informed of [] name of the moment by [] who has given him a piece of a playing card the other half of which will be given [] to insure proper recognition.
